

EFFECTIVE

August 1, 2010.

SUBJECTS

1. New item.
2. Terminology updated.

1) New ItemSRM 102, Organizational Structure & Requirements for the Administration of TITLE IV-E Programs

The organizational structure of the Department of Human Services (DHS) is available for review at the DHS website. The function of each of its organizational units as they relate to the administration of the title IV-E foster care maintenance, adoption assistance and guardianship assistance programs is outlined in this item.

Reason: Region Office of the Children's Bureau requirement.

2) Terminology updated

The following items were updated with current terminology and processes:

- SRM 132, Response to the Office of Children's Ombudsman.
- SRM 133, Response to the Office of the Family Advocate.

Reason: Policy update.

MANUAL
MAINTENANCE
INSTRUCTIONS

Added Items ...

SRM 102

Changed Items (content changes) ...

SRM 132

SRM 133